

YOUR HOTLOTZ MARKETPLACE INVOICE EXPLAINED

This explainer illustrates how we have prepared an invoice for an item sold in the Hotlotz Marketplace. The item, a mother of pearl wall mirror, was sold for a fixed price of $40.00 inc. GST.

1 Your registered account name and unique Hotlotz reference

Please ensure that your Hotlotz account is registered in your full legal name and pay your own invoices.

This is important as Hotlotz can only accept payments from the buyer named on the invoice. We cannot accept third-party payments from an individual or organisation that is not named as the buyer. This includes payments from a spouse or another family member.

If you need to make any changes to your personal details, it's easy to do at any time in your Hotlotz account.

Your unique Hotlotz reference (sometimes referred to as your paddle number) is also listed here. You should quote this if you contact us with any general queries about your account.

2 Your unique invoice number for handy reference

The invoice number shown here relates to this specific invoice. You should quote it if you contact us with any queries about this invoice.

If you pay your invoice by bank transfer or PayNow please quote this invoice number as the reference.

3 This line item shows the fixed price amount

The description shows the title of the item which this invoice relates to.

4 This shows the total GST you have paid for all taxable supplies at the prevailing rate including commission and fees.

In line with price display rules in Singapore, fixed prices are inclusive of GST. This shows the total GST that you have paid.
